Romans 12:9-13

Thought for the Day:

The disciples are an emotional wreck after the crucifixion of Jesus. Their fear drives them to seclusion. When Jesus appears to them, behind closed doors, his first words are in response to what he preserves. Jesus knows that he needs the disciples to carry the message of God's redemptive love to the world. In order to be the most effective witnesses for Christ, the followers must have a peace within that only Jesus can give. What drives you to seclusion and where do you look for peace?
