Next Sunday's Scriptures:

2 Samuel 6:1-5, 12b -19; Psalm 24; Ephesians 1:3-14; Mark 6:14-29; Colossians 2:6-7

Thought for the Day:

It is interesting how hard we work to live a good life, acquire wealth and pursue worldly pleasures, while Jesus is so much about, well nothing. I mean nothing in the worldly ways. In our text for today, Jesus specifically tells his disciples not to burden themselves with worldly weight on their journey. In Mark 6:8, Jesus tells the disciples to take only a staff, no bread, no bag or money. In Christian ministry, we need to focus upon Christ and not be burdened with things. I realize that necessary loses can be painful.

Kingdom Value: Discipling

Growing spiritually through Bible study, equipping people to serve in ministry, and witnessing for Christ.
